Court of General Scasions.

Before Judge Beebe.

Nov. 22—The Court resumed its sitting to fay, and after disposing of the remainder of the cases on the calendar, and as fencing the prisoners convicted, discharged the grand and pelit jurors for the term.

SENTENCED.

Grand Larceny.—A colored man named Flias Dorsey, on being convicted of stealing three barrels of pork, valued at $50, from a houre in West street was sentenced to two years imprisonment in the State prison.

The Burning Game.—Two men, named James Wheeler and Joseph Morrison, (colored.) were then placed at the bar, charged with obtaining $60 from Elward Bugby, a countryman, by means of the artille commonly known as the "burning game." It appeared from the evidence of the complanant that he met the prisoners in Fulton street, near Greenwich street, and on inquiring the way to Brooklyn, one of them said he was going that way himself, and after conversing with him a few moments, they were joined by the confederate, Jos Morrison, wo asked complainant if he would decide a bet between him and another of the gang named Rough, who is not at present under arrest, turging him at the same time by saying if he would step across the street to an alley way, and there decide the bet, he could earn $5. On witness reaching the desired ground, Black Joe asked him if he he knew any thing about cards, producing at the same time a "greasy pack," but witness said he never played cards in any way, manner or shaee. This dissonceries the sharpers, but railying one of them asked him if he he have year year, and he would get him to a store of tail speed, making, as the witness said his coat talks sick out behied him like two little stresmers on the mast of a North river sloop. The other confederates then book hold of the dupe, and held him light until Mr. Jeseph was beyond his reach, but finally let him go, and told him that if he would co

A young man named Levi Weeks, was then placed at the bar to receive the sentence of the court, he having been convicted a few days ago of knocking down and robbing John Yagar, in Third avenue, near Fortleth street. The court, in pronauncing sentence, said it was a painful sight to see such a young man knowship up haffor. sight to see such a young man brought up before him, convicted by a jury of his countrymen of the great crime of highway robbery, the panishment for which was not less than ten years imprisonment in the Sixte Prison. If it had not been for the respectability of his parents, the court would make his case an example to rowdles in this city, and for their sake he would give him the shortest term, which was ten years continuement in the State Prison at Sixe Sing.

term, which was ten years confinement in the State Prison at Sing Sing.

MANSLAUGHTER IN THE FOURTH DEGREE.

Patrick Jones who pleaded guilty to killing Dennis Collins, by striking him on the head with a cart rung, in the month of October last, was then sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the penitentisty.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

A decent looking man mamed James Hosey, who was trice with Weeks for highway robbery, but found guilty of assault and battery only, was then sentenced to three months in prisonment in the City prison. His former character was shown to be excellent, hence the light pun shment.

GRAND LARCENY.

Two youths, camed John Smith and George Brown.convicted of straling some silk vestings, valued at $59, from Porter & Whitney, were sentenced. Smith to three years and four months, and Brown to two years and four months confinement in the State prison.

EURGLARY IN THE THIRD DEGREE.

Wm. Sparks, also inducted with Weeks for highway robbery, plead guilty on another charge of burglary in the third degree, in having entered the dwelling house of Mr. Peet, in the Eighteenth ward, was sentenced to four years and ten months incarceration in the marble palace at Sing Sing. Sing Sing.

Sing Sing.

BURGLARY IN THE THIRD DEGREE.

A German, samed Augustus Weizer, or wicted of burglariously entering the store of Peter Holenboke, in Thirty third street, and stealing therefrom a large quantity of coffee, inoigo and spices, was sentenced to two years imprisonment in the State prison. The prisoner's good character saved him from two years punishment.

good character saved him from five years punishment.

GRAND LAECENY.

Hermann Sol croke, convicted of stealing a lot of silver spoons and forks, was scateneed to two years imprisonment in the State paien. The poor fellow, with tears in his eyes, entreated the Judge to suspend judgment on account of his wife and children.

Evant Marshall, who was conviced a few days ago of burghriously entering the store of Whitten & Forter, No. 339 Streat ay, and stealing from the premises some $90 worth of silk goods all of which has since been recovered was sentenced to three years and four menths imprisonment in the State prison.

try. Even the strictest temperance men admit its medi-inal claims, and I do not believe that my useful agent ever rested its claims to public favor upon such weighty "proofs and evidences."

In these days of adulteration, when we have news from France that wince are being manufactured without one particle of the juice of the grape, the value of a guaranteed article like the schnapps must be self-svident. That the public appreciate the, is apparent from the rapidly increasing sales. Eighteen hundred down bottles per week is now about the average.

In conclusion, I would caution the public through your columns against the dommon gin seld, in some instances out of my bottles at the bars of public houses. My agents are at present looking into this matter, and I mean to publish the names of all parties who may be detected in this most atroclous frand. IDOLPHO WOLFE, 22 Beaver street.

Dr. Morse's Invigorating Elixir or Cordial.

—Among all herbs applied in medical practice that which forms the main ingradient in this preparation stands supreme. It is nature's catholicon. Had the travels of Dr. Morse, which has added so much to science in its various branches, resulted in the discovery of this herb alone, he would still have been the great benefactor of the age. Mineral remedics are utterly superseded by this purely vogetable specific. Are you weak, dyspoptis, nervous, subject to sudden flushes, convulsed with neuralgia or tie dolercus, irregular in any physical function, enervated in any organ, subject to spasmodic pains of any kind? Here is your renewly. Is your mind, your memory clouded; does your head fall you in business, are you depressed in spirits, debilitated, worn out, and utterly "out of hearts" Here is your renewator. Here is a stimulant more effective than alcohol, permanent in its effects, and harmless to the system as fittered water. Think for these things yes that are sick and suffering, and test our words by experiment. The cordial is put up, highly concentrated, in pint bettles. Price 33 per bettle; two for 55; six for $12.$ C. H. RING, proprietor, [92 Broadway, Sold by druggists throughout the United States, Canada and the West Indies.
